ENDLESS ISLAND ELEGANCE

Ocean waves crash against the sandy shore. Palm trees sway gently in the breeze. And, because this is Puerto Rico, the rhythms and sounds of evening festivities mingle in the background.

At Fairmont El San Juan Hotel, every event comes alive with the essence of the Island of Enchantment: mid-century venues artfully re-imagined for today's needs, menus filled with sophisticated Caribbean and international flavors, and the warm, thoughtful hospitality that has welcomed iconic guests since 1958.

A VENUE FOR EVERY SIZE AND STYLE

Just like the 7,000 hand-blown crystals that greet you from the magnificent chandelier at the Lobby, each of our venues radiates its own unique personality. Sammy Davis, Jr., Frank Sinatra and Liza Minelli all took to the stage here in the 1960s. Today, new stories are written each night within our walls—at concerts as well as at conferences, meetings and all kinds of celebrations—aided by our staff of event professionals.

Our Grand Ballroom boasts even more space for events that simply can't settle for less, enchanting up to 1,200 guests with spellbinding ocean views and carefully considered decor. For more intimate settings, our Meeting Rooms offer a diverse portfolio of options tailored to your needs and preferences. Or consider working with us to create a one-of-a-kind setting that matches your vision across our more than 30,000 square feet (2,800 square meters) of event space, including our 300-year-old banyan tree and the sands of Isla Verde Beach.

AN ISLAND FULL OF FLAVOR

In afternoon cafecitos and five-course evening feasts alike, our kitchens serve not only the finest of traditional Puerto Rican flavors, but also creative, contemporary dining inspired by global tastes. Locally caught seafood and seasonal produce are always on offer, and the island's historic connection to spirits and cocktails can be incorporated into your event. No matter the occasion, we're always happy to help you curate menus that satisfy the senses—and ambitions—of your guests.
